BiblioGov. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 84 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.2in.GAO reviewed the Agency for International Developments (AID) progress in assisting Egypt in developing its economy, including: (1) the conditions and constraints of establishing and administering the Economic Support Fund (ESF); and (2) the advantages and disadvantages of the current mode of providing ESF assistance and the possible alternative ways of disbursing this assistance. GAO found that: (1) economic development progress has been somewhat limited by program conditions over which AID had little control; and (2) some actions taken to support the political purpose of the program may not be of optimal value in working toward the longer term economic development goal. GAO found that AID had difficulty influencing Egypt to quicken its pace in making economic policy reforms because: (1) AID lacked overall program funding leverage; and (2) Egypt was concerned that moving too quickly might be politically destabilizing. GAO also found that the large size of the project portfolio has: (1) made it difficult to administer the program; (2) challenged Egypt's ability to effectively absorb large amounts of assistance; and (3) resulted in a large amount of obligated but...
