Excerpt: . . . perform some deeds worthy of note, before it can be entitled to admission to the great league of confederation. Around this, are five smaller cabins, . emblems of the original Five Nations, before the league was formed, and on one side is a still smaller one, wrought since the first, representing the Tuscarora nation, which was admitted at a subsequent period. Another long narrow belt, having a cross at one end and a long house at the other, a narrow white stripe connecting the long house and a large cross, was explained as follows: Great many years ago, a company from Canada presented this belt, desiring that missionaries, from the Roman Catholic church, might be settled among the Five Nations, and erect a church at Onondaga, and that the road should be continually kept open and free between them. All the other belts were explained...
