Dundurn Group Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Under the Blue Beret: A U.N. Peacekeeper in the Middle East, Terry Burke, "The fundamental and essential purpose of the United Nations is to keep the peace. Everything which does not further that goal, either directly or indirectly, is at best superfluous." -- Henry Cabot Lodge, former U.S. ambassador to the United Nations From the 1950s to the present day, Canadian peacekeepers have been employed as a stabilizing force and an instrument of peace in every corner of the globe. In this first-hand account, Terry "Stoney" Burke paints a graphic picture of a peacekeeper's life in one of the most tumultuous and dangerous regions of the world. From the war-torn island of Cyprus, through his later missions in Israel, Lebanon, and Syria, we follow him as he weaves an intriguing narrative of life as a Canadian peacekeeper. Whether a veteran or a civilian, the reader will find this book creates a clear and brutally honest picture of a peacekeeper's life in the always volatile Middle East.
