This investigation was made in accordance with the terms of the appropriation act for this Department for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1901, which authorizes the Secretary of Agriculture to investigate and report to Congress on the agricultural resources and capabilities of Porto Rico with special reference to the selection of locations for agricultural experiment stations and the determination of the character and extent of agricultural experiments immediately demanded by the condition of agriculture in that island. As the agent to make this investigation, Prof. S. A. Knapp, formerly of the Iowa Agricultural College and more recently engaged in agricultural enterprises in southern Louisiana, was appointed special agent in charge of agricultural investigations in Porto Rico and sent to that island about the middle of June, 1900, with the following instructions: The following subjects should be included in your investigations: (1) The general agricultural conditions existing in Porto Rico and the necessary and feasible measures for the improvement of these conditions. (2) The lines of experimental investigations which should be undertaken in Porto Rico, and especially those which should be undertaken in the immediate future. As far as practicable, the scope, extent, and cost of the experimental inquiries immediately demanded...
