Not illustrated. 1880 Excerpt: .named Tom, Dick, and Harry, all merry and good-natured lads, though a little given to mischief. Their parents were very fond of them; but it was a great grief to the Lady Mayoress that she had no daughter to be a companion to her during the long hours in which her husband was engaged in administering justice and presiding at meetings. As soon as the boys were able to run about, it was found impossible to keep them much at home. Indeed, it was not desirable to do so, for they did their best to turn the Mansion-House into a perfect bear-garden, raising such a din that their worshipful father could scarcely hear himself making a speech, fighting with the pages, splashing mud over the silk stockings of the footmen, putting cobblers wax on the chair of the Chief Clerk, laughing outright in the very wig...
