Excerpt: .booty to you. But the queen is so condescending. Bien oblige pour moi; but the place was first promised to me. I can only be the more grateful to the queen for her kindness.¹¹ But will you permit me to be the victim of the favours you receive? VOL. II. H I can only say that her majesty's generosity to her friends is unbounded. But, madame, this is committing a grievous outrage. Ah! madame, pray do not calumniate her majesty; no one in the world can be so kind. Nothing could drive Madame de Polignac out of this entrenchment of apology, till her visitor, finally finding resistance unavailable, was obliged to ground arms, and surrender at discretion. However, they made her a compensation of 100,000 ecus down, and an annual pension of 50,000 livres; for it was impossible to pay too much for any...
