A Meal Like That (Paperback)

By Albert Garcia

Brick Road Poetry Press, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .With his uncommon common sense, Albert Garcia makes readers stop and pay attention. Again and again reading this collection I found myself halted by the simple astuteness of an observation, before I knew love is pain / wrapped in shining paper . . . His unlikely choices of words or images often seem somehow exactly correct, once his context is studied, your hair plumed like ink from a squid. Best of all, an ongoing sense of wonder at life itself pervades these singular expressions of mortality and more. -Gerald Haslam, author of Coming of Age in California and Grace Period With extraordinary attentiveness to the world around us, Albert Garcia explores the important questions: How to find equilibrium in a universe where Isaiah's wolf and lamb do not dwell peacefully beside each other-where just the idea of standing on a volcano's shoulder.makes you brace for balance -where awareness means accepting the fragility and underside of each moment. I am grateful for Garcia's wise, humane and wide-awake look into these complexities-of daily...
