Excerpt: .alone; The summer comes with flower and bee-- Where is my brother gone? The butterfly is glancing bright 5 Across the sunbeam s track; I care not now to chase its flight-- Oh! call my brother back! The flowers run wild--the flowers we sow d Around our garden tree; 10 Our vine is drooping with its load--Oh! call him back to me! He could not hear thy voice, fair child, He may not come to thee; The face that once like spring- time smiled, 15 On earth no more thou lt see. And has he left his birds and flowers, And must I call in vain? And, through the long, long summer hours Will he not come again? 20 And by the brook, and in the glade, Are all our wanderings o er? Ob, while my brother with me play d, Would I had loved him more!...
