Not illustrated. 1901 Excerpt: .they include far more than they did a century ago. The alarmist s cry of paternalism carries no terror with it. because the people see a greater, completer form of government to be the natural product of normal social development. In point of fact, as reported in our daily papers, government is being compelled to assume larger responsibilities and take on industrial functions willynilly. This in its turn will compel the people to take a more direct hand in government. Once a week would suit me. Popular legislation, direct legislation, law-making done by the people is a reform that is already gaining headway. I have been pleased to notice in The Social Gospel reports of the adoption of some forms of the referendum in several states. This that is already accomplished in the right direction encourages us who have been deprived of one half of our...
