Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Understanding the worship in the Tabernacle and Temple helps the believer to understand the joy and responsibility of worship in the New Testament Church. We learn through the Tabernacle that even though God s methods may change, His principles forever remain the same. We see this as we observe the Israelites encamped around the Tabernacle. They were either worshipers, workers, or warriors. That is a picture of the believer today. Worship, work, and warrior is what the believer is. We are saved to worship. If we have our worship in order, and are giving to God the praise, honor, and glory due Him, then work or service will inevitably follow. As we worship and serve our Lord we are to put on the full armor of God and go forth as victorious warriors in His presence. This is the normal Christian walk or life as we all await the Lord s return.
